For the first three days of this week a road live! bill has been arranged for this popular vaudeville house with plenty of music, singing and dancing of the kind that makes one sit up and take notice. For the first part Miss Morelle has a very catchy illustrated song and the Auditorium trio will render with their usual harmony the song of the sen, Petrel's Cry.

Those odd comedians, Walter and George Stanton, will offer the liveliest kind of a song and dance turn and est kind of a song and dance turn end put in many good clean jokes on the side. These two boys are natural fun-makers and you can't help but like them.

A comedy singing and musical sketch entitled The Darky Dancing Master, will be resented by the Wangdoodis Comedy four, all of whom are well known and clever entertainers and their offering, which has been secured as an added attraction, is something entirely new. A classy little character comedienne is Miss Pearl Revere, who will add to the heatness of the bill

The big feature act, Ashborn's pony and dog circus, will show some of the cleverest little dogs on the stage to-day and will also introduce Rex, the pony with the human brain, who can do everything but talk. First class motion pictures will round out one of the bissest bills ever

This week will find another big comedy show, as all or most all the big comedy show, as all or most all the matrons seem to like comedy acts. The management offers the first three days four all-comedy acts. The Schaar-Wheeler trio are the big feature act; they are a comedy and sensational troupe of cyclists who have been the hit of the show wherever they have appeared. Irvin Walton and Allie Vivian have a travesty on New York successes, replate with songs, dances. One of the big feature pictures at the Breed theater today will be the powerful Biograph story entitled On the Reef, consisting of a thoroughly consistent plot, which is further embellished by the superb acting of all of the favorites of the Biograph cast. The absorbing story tells of a pretty girl, whose widowed mother is about to die, and realizing the fact, asks her daughter to marry an old benefactor of the family that the roung girl and her grandparents may be taken proper care of. The benefactor in this case happens to an old widower, and, wishing to please the dying mother, the girl consents, and the pair are married at the bedside of the dying woman. The girl struggles hard to love the old man until her husband, one day, introduces her to a young and prosperous author. It was a case of love at first sight, but the better kelf in the young wife asserts itself and she renounces him and he leaves the country. Her husband finds the note left by the author, telling of their love, and that he was about to leave forever, and the old man uncountry. ove, and that he was about to leave forever, and the old man succumbs to

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR-High Price of Living.

Mr. Editor: Forty or forty-five years ago the cost of living, on an average, was twice as high as it is today, and there was no general comlaverage, was twice as high as it is today, and there was no general complaint and no talk of boycotts. For forty years, as a nation, we have been getting rich by leaps and bounds, so we are told. Today there is a general complaint that prices are too high. It would seem by this that the richer we become the less able we are to pay present prices, which are not more than one-half as much as then. By this sort of reasoning and logic it should be our policy to cut out some of our great prosperity. It looks tike an overproduction of prosperity. By this logic it would look like the richer we get the poorer we are (?). Something out of joint somewhere. If great prosperity disables us to pay one-half the price paid forty years ago, in the time of calamity, it would seem that instead of a blessing prosperity is a curse. This condition puts one in mind of the puzzle pictures we see in the papers. It sets every one to searching for the joker in the puzzle. Got to curtail our living because we are so very wealthy. Will somebody find and point out the joker before we all have to go hungry?

POISONED BY PIN PRICK | BUSINESS DIRECTORY

"Several years ago I had a little pimple come between my ankle and knee. I opened it with a pin which caused it to inflame. In a short time my limb was so poisoned and swollen I could scarcely use it. I suffered intense pain, being unable to rest day or night. I tried every remedy recommended, consulted several specialists but grew worse all the time, finding no relief in anything.

"My sister recommended the Cuticura Remedies. I began using the Cuticura Remedies according to directions and I was so much relieved that I slept some the first night. The itching, burning and swelling in my limb gradually decreased and the sore began to heal. After six months' suffering such as I had endured, the relief was wonderful. I continued the treatment several weeks and a permanent recovery was the result. I shall ever recommend the Cuticura Remedies to any one suffering from blood and skin diseases. Mrs. D. M. May, R. F.
